2026 MEXICO CITY GRAND PRIX

30 October - 01 November

From	The Stewards	Document	41
To	The Team Manager, Oracle Red Bull Racing	Date	31 October 2026
		Time	10:50

The Stewards, having received a report from the Media Delegate, summoned the driver and team representative (document 35), and heard from the driver and team representative, have considered the following matter and determine the following:

No / Driver	6 - Isack Hadjar
Competitor	Oracle Red Bull Racing
Time	12:20
Session	Free Practice 1
Fact	The driver and a Paddock guest appeared to have an interaction in the Paddock prior to the start of FP1.
Infringement	Breach of Article 12.2.1.l of the FIA International Sporting Code.
Decision	Driver: Formal warning.
Reason	The Stewards heard from the driver of Car 6 (Isack Hadjar) and the team representative and reviewed video evidence. The driver stated that he was running late for FP1 and had stopped to have a photograph with a young fan, when he was approached by a Paddock guest in an aggressive manner. One security person was walking behind him and was unable to intervene and prevent what was tantamount to an invasion of the driver's private space. The driver initially resisted the move by placing his hand on the waist of the guest, holding him at bay, then the driver pushed him aside with his open right hand. This latter action by the driver is regarded as a breach of the regulations however in mitigation of penalty the stewards considered the following matters (in accordance with the guidelines provided in Appendix B of the FIA International Sporting Code): a) The driver was reacting to an uninvited and rather aggressive action by another person b) The driver was endeavouring to make his way to the start of FP1 through a congested area c) The driver did not have sufficient security present d) The guest was invading his personal space without his consent. e) The general issue drivers have experienced moving through the Paddock Competitors are reminded that they have the right to appeal certain decisions of the Stewards, in accordance with Article 15 of the FIA International Sporting Code and Chapter 5 of the FIA Judicial and Disciplinary Rules, within the applicable time limits.

Decisions of the Stewards are taken independently of the FIA and are based solely on the relevant regulations, guidelines and evidence presented.
